The Doctor's Surgery in my Town

Among the many differences between Korea and the UK,
I can't miss mentioning the medical system.

In Korea, if your body doesn't feel right, you visit a specialist for that part of the body.

But in England, you have to visit your registered GP first.

Either you get treated by them or...

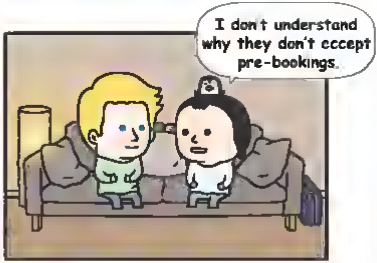
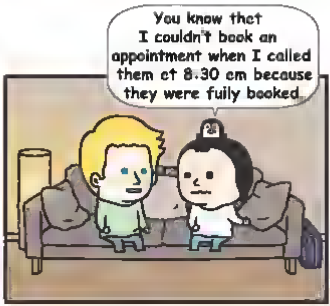
...you can visit a special clinic
through the NHS with your GP's help.

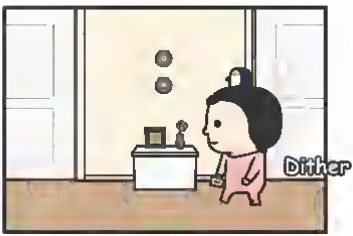
However, every surgery has different system

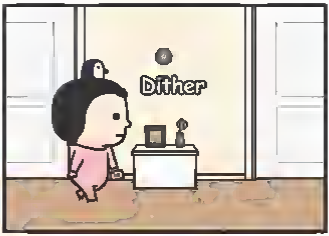


Our surgery only takes bookings on the day and you have to call early in the morning.

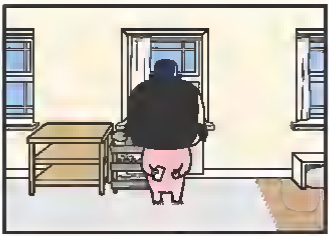


The following morning





Dither



RRRR—♪

I'm sorry.
This is not our opening time yet.
Please call..

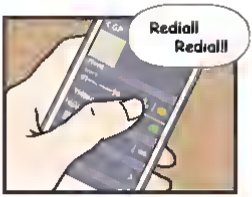
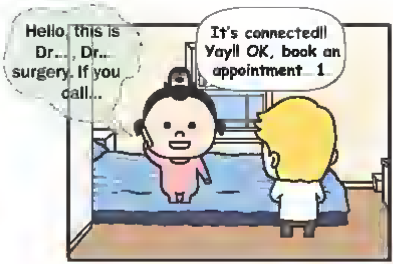
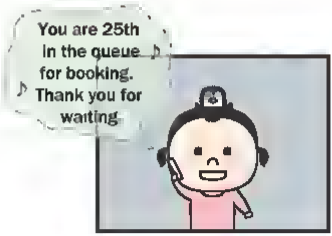
Gosh, I called them too early!



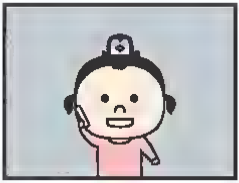
Redial! Redial!!



Hello, this is Dr... Dr... surgery. If you call...
It's connected!! Yay!! OK, book an appointment 1



You are 25th in the queue for booking. Thank you for waiting



Calling the surgery
is a chilling experience.
